Grant de Colfax -The Grant & Golax meeting in Chattanooga was a failure, here being but two persons present and ne of those a negro.

Railroad Rems .- Trains are now inning on the Wills Valley Railroad. Gars on the Knoxville & Charleston allroad now run to Maryville

Mail Robbery .- A young son of Har on Gill, of Monroe county, West i ginia, has been arrested for robbing Convention-The Bristol Convention mets at Norfolk, Va., the first Wednesday in October next.

Wanted Builty !- A hog law. Wanted Worse!-A purchaser for the il as we are propagating.

Business Like .- The Southern Express Company have placed a nice new wagon on our street, so that gentlemen at their doors.

Delayed-We regret that the press of business this week has compelled us to leave over an advertisement of the fine stock of new goods just received by in the mercantile line at very low prices. Call and see them.

Correction .- In our hurry last week we inadvertently brought out the card of B. T. Bakover, General Commission Merchant, Norfolk, Va., as a Petersburg advertisement, this was a mistake. Mr. Bokover is a well-known Commission Merchant at Norfolk.

A Thief Shot .- A few nights since one Pleasant, a negro, late of the city of Abingdon, thinking how pleasant is was to cat potatoes, took a bag and entered a potatoe lot in the outskirts of town; but meeting with a very unpleasant reception in the shape of the contents of a double-barreled shot-gun in his leg, abandoned his potatoes and fled. He has since kept himself secreted; nevertheless, the fact is known. If this was not a Ku Klux outrage, we would say : served him right. But us it is we and for the militia! A loyal citizen has Law, of Panhook, Franklin county, Va., been fired on !

Indian Students at Emary, Vu.-We are informed by Prof Davis, of Emo. ry & Henry College, that there are now at that institution, awaiting the opening of the nex session, five Indians. They are from the Indian Nation, and belong the Gaickasaw and Choetaw tribes. Several of them are protaising young men and speak the English language quite flacutly. They are entirely a welcome and useful acquisition to the Colleger

Coul Discovered -- It is probable that no more important discovery has been war that the recent one of coal at Salt-ville. Considering the locality, the truly distressing. While with Thomas made is Southwestern Virginia since the quality, and the apparent amount, it House he was several times seen to could searcely have been more auspicious. It is on land sold by Hon. muother. As yet, no tidings of the vile Wyndham Robertson to Mr. F. Smyth. wretch, who has ruined a bright home As usual, Mr. Robertson had reserved and made its inmates miserable, have the mineral right, and at a more subset reached us. Hill left a wife and one quent period leased it to Mr. Milburn mountain immediately north of and plats next week within a mile of the salines, and within about ten feet he found a small vein, a few feet further on another, and still snother, until at the depth of eighteen ness, was opened up. The quality is weather being worm, his outside door very fine burning entirely to ashes

Not a "Loyal Leaguer."-We stated in our last issue that young Willoughby, who killed Whitaker, was a "Loyal Languer." We have since learned that Mr. Willoughby is not a "Loys | crippled shoulder. al Leaguer."

Presentation of a Cane .- A friend informs us that the Bristol & Kindrick's Creek Turnpike Company, in appreciation of the services of Mr. Welsh, representative in the Tennessee Legislature for the county of Sullivan, have presented that gentleman with a fine gold-headed cane, bearing a mitable inscription.

Washington Springs .- We learn that there are a lerge number of vistors at those Sprines, and that the managers On File in the Auditor of State's Office. have, by their energy, politeness and attention, made them a most pleasant resort. Board is only $10 per week. Parties leaving Bristol by evening train United States Securities, get off at Glade Springs depot, wheaven stages will convey them to the Springs, Hartford Bank Stocks, only four miles distant. The so who Miscellaneous Bank Stocks, wish to spend a pleasant week in the mountains would enjoy the trip.

A Pig with Eight Legs .- Mr. John Pendleton, from Osborn's Ford, Scott county, Va., brought into our effice, a mail. A younger brother is also few days since, a stuffed pig, having eight distinct and well-defined legs, three ears and two tails. This, it would seem, was rather two pigs with but one head. From the head back to the middle of the body it was but one, when it then became two separate and distinct pigs. The two fore feet and four hind feet, making six feet, were in there natural positions, but there were two feet putting out on the back; these, added to the six just mentioned, make the eight can now have their packages delivered It also had two ears in their natural places, and one upon the top of the head ; otherwise, the head was natural, if we except its very large eyes.

When found it was dead, and seems to have lived but a short time.

Unlike the "Big Snakes," this mon Jos. R. Anderson & Co. These gentle- ster pig can be seen by the carious, as men supply the trade with every article Mr. Pendleton will be in town for several days.

Mrs. Chanceaulme's School .- We Preaching,-The Rev. T. D. Dashiel, would call attention to the advertisement of Mrs. Chanceaulme in another column. An error as to the terms occurred in our last issue which has been cortected in to-day's.

This lady having declined the position tendered her in Martha Washingten College, will open her school in this place on the 7th of September. Mrs. C. has had a long experience, and whereever she has taught has given satisfaction. She has procured the services of ment is being made by which Dr. Templeton will, in October, open a first-class boarding house in connection with the school.

Dr. Templeton will take flour, bacon, lard, butter, chickens, &c., in payment from those who wish to board their daughters with him. This will enable many to come from the country, who otherwise could not avail themselves of the opportunity now offered.

Our City .- Bristol is a good placenice city. Like the precious labe taken to Soloman's court, it is claimed by two mothers, Virginia and Tennessoe; but unlike Solomon, its God-fathers did out it exactly in twain, and male the very equitable distribution of an equal moiety to each of the contending matrons. Not to have shared it between them would have been unwise. So nice and so premising a scion would have led to a war and left our city on the Beaver, a prey to outside cupidity worse than that which eventually ran the plow-share through the mortar and ashes of Garthage. Wise progenitors had we.

Death from Paralysis .- Mr. J. C. was stricken with paralysis near Adairs Ferry, Giles county, Va., and lay for several hours in the road before he was several hours in the road before he was cute cases in Bankruptcy in the U. S discovered. As soon as discovered he Courts of Virginia and Tennessue. Blank was taken to the house of the ferryman, and afterwards removed to Pearisburg by his brother Masons, who cared for his wants, showing him every kindness and attention in their power. After lingering for several days, he died on the morning of the 19th.

A Feuitless Search, - A gentlemanly pooking farmer reached this place yesterday, from his home in Pulaski county, Va., in search of a man by the name of Barney Hill, who, after sharing his hos pitality, had stolen his wire, his horse, child. Later - Barney Hill, the wife thief, Gallibar, of Smyth county. This gen- has been captured and brought to the tleman went to work on the slope of the Thomas House in this place. Partic-

Attacked by a Bear .- A novel and perilous adventure occurred on Copper Ridge, near Stony Creek, Scott county, Va , about the 8th inst. Mr. John C. Brickey, aged about 53 years, was asleep feet a fing rain, saveral feet in thick- in his house about midnight. The was left open. He was attreked by a large female bear. Being a rebust man hi succeeding in defending himfelf until his son, who was seleep up stairs, heard the alorm and ran to his ussistance with his gun and dog.
